

SOUTH COUNTY GROWERS' ASSOCIATION
2012 At-large Membership Application

The mission of the South County Growers' Association is to support Rhode Island sustainable producers, to educate the public about the benefits of buying locally grown food directly from farmers and about the importance of conservation of open space and farmland, and to connect farmers and agricultural artisans to the local community.

The South County Growers' Association welcomes applications from community members interested in supporting the Association's purposes. At-large Membership is non-voting and requires no yearly dues or fees. At-large Members may attend the Annual Meeting and other meetings of the Membership and may serve on Committees of the Members.
